

With spring just around the corner, there is no better time to start redecorating your home and garden, to make sure your home is where your friends and family want to gather and form lasting memories. The most important step when choosing where to buy luxury home décor, is making sure the place has the selection to distinguish your home in a way that reflects you and your hard work.

Besides boasting one of the largest assortments of home accessories in the industry; Belle and June is known for upgrading their inventory on a weekly basis with the most up-to-date and sought after items, including a breathtaking collection of cachepots, planters, and garden stools in every style and color. Featured in 2014 by Carla Aston, Matiana Mitchell, Parc Interiors, House & Home, and Veronica from The Naked Decorator and built by the hands of the home decor expert, owner and founder of Belle & June, Jordana Sager speaks volumes about the elegance and well crafted beauty Belle & June can bring to a home.

Offering an incredible array of styles to match any home's unique design is what you can expect when you buy luxury home décor from Belle & June. Whether you are seeking to upgrade your contemporary family room, a country style patio, a modern kitchen, a western style dining room, a mid-century living room, or a shabby chic bedroom the possibilities Belle & June offers are endless.

Your uniqueness and personality cannot be displayed by the plain walls of a home. It takes a keen eye to select the perfect decorations to turn a house into a superb piece of art, art that you can be proud of and others can yearn for. What Jordana understands better than anyone is just how big of a difference a seemingly small item can make to a home's allure. A simple picture frame, decorative bowl, or garden stool is often what brings a house together. This is why every piece of Belle & June's astonishing collection is carefully examined and hand-picked by an expert decorator before being made available to its valued customers.
